A Membeb: I am speaking from the canners standpoint. That is what we paid for them. Mb. Walkeb: We have a way of calling something like 2, 130 square feet an acre at the time of planting our crops, or in speaking to our neighbors about our acre tillage, when as a matter of fact, there are 43, 560 square feet in an acre. A Membeb: There were 1600 tons paid for on the 200 acres, and the blight hit them hard, too Mb. Walkeb: Well, I will show the gentleman my farm accounts, and it would prove exceedingly instructive if we could have access to the accounts referred to by our friend--that is, the farmers accounts. It is high time we were getting away from the country store dry goods box statements. A Membeb: I would like to ask if it is safe to plant tomatoes next year where we had blight this year Mb. Walkeb: Do you mean blight or wilt A Membeb: The wilt. Mb. Walkeb: From information coming to me through Professors Symons and Monroe of our Experiment Station, I would say it is not. Now one word in reference to the State Seed Law. For years we have been endeavoring to secure the enactment of a law whereby publicity could be given the seedsmen who were placing on sale seeds containing a large per cent of dangerous weed seeds. The present law requires the labeling of all lots of seed...
