

Party Not Faction: The Necessity for National Government, the Need for Coalition (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Pseud Politicus

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Party Not Faction: The Necessity for National Government, the Need for Coalition The object of this pamphlet is to show that it is our duty to support the Coalition Government, not only as good Britons but also as good party men, Liberal, Conservative, or for that matter, Labour. The writer begins by explaining the origins and motives of Coalition in the war. He denies that there is a hard and fast line to be drawn between the politics that make for success in war and in peace. - (Chapter 1.) He proceeds to indicate the hidden dangers that threatened the country at the Armistice and to show that in holding an early General Election and in continuing the Coalition Mr. Lloyd George followed the only course consistent with honour and national safety. The policy of the Coalition is discussed and it is shown that Mr. Lloyd George was more faithful to Liberal principles than their official representatives. - (Chapter 2.) In the next Chapter the writer passes in review the achievements of the Coalition both...

READ ONLINE
[6.79 MB]

Reviews

Simply no words to explain. It really is basic but shocks from the fifty percent of the ebook. I am just happy to explain how this is the finest pdf we have read within my personal life and could be the best ebook for possibly.

-- Blair Monahan

Extensive information! Its this type of excellent study. I have read and i am sure that i will gonna go through yet again once more down the road. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Aliyah Mayer