Excerpt: .the benefits to the brick industry through the work of the Building Brick Association of America have been most remarkable and satisfactory. The past year has been the biggest and most successful in the history of that organization, and the recent annual meeting in connection with the various important gatherings in Chicago has also been the biggest and most successful. Reviewing the work of the association for the past year, it is interesting to note that there has been an increase of 30 per cent in its membership. Through its agency 35 million copies of advertising talks regarding the value of brick for building have been distributed to the people of this country and 85,000 pieces of other printed matter through the mails. The office of the association has been in receipt of and answered 5,000 letters from individuals concerning the work of the association and matters relating to brick building. The result of all this effort has been that the people of this country know more than they ever did before of the merits of brick for building construction and the members of the association have received practical benefit from this work in increased sales. The enthusiasm and interest shown at the annual publicity meeting of the association was an evidence of the satisfaction which the work of this organization is giving to its members and to the trade, and as a result of that meeting, the B. B. A. starts out on...
