To see her father's face, alive again, was something that she had not prepared herself for. For a reunion of this caliber should have brought her happy feelings but this was the total opposite. Waking up in a dark room, unaware of her surrounding, she remembers everything that took place the night before. From her father's red eyes, to her being taken, she had yet to know the reason why. The moment her father walked in the door she had a sickening feeling in the pit of her stomach that she would never see her Aunt Janelle or grandma again. But most importantly would she ever see the man she was in love with? Would she be able to handle the truth about what had happened to her mother or better yet, would she want to? Madison's journey will be anything but simple. On her way to remembering she will go through many events that will leave her questioning her identity. She not only has to find a way to escape...
