(Also see page 204) The Market Prices Indicated in this Review represent as nearly as possible the correct valuations on the day of going to press with this section of the Meyer Brothers Druggist. Exceptional facilities for keeping in close touch with changes enable us to give the latest word on prices. However, the erratic market conditions make It quite impossible to forecast changes that may occur in the immediate future. With the general upward tendency of prices, buying has been unusually brisk. Dealers throughout the country are apparently anticipating further advances, buying far ahead of immediate requirements. Purchases of pharmaceuticals and galenicals containing a large percentage of Alcohol are particularly heavy, no doubt due to the expected increase in tax on Alcohol. Alcohol continues to advance in sympathy with the high cost of grain, and if the tax should be doubled, as is proposed in the new revenue bill, it will bring the price well above $5.00 per gallon. Glycerin is advancing steadily on account of increased demand for both U. S. P. and dynamite grades. The increasing cost of fats and greases is also a strong...
