

Six Legs and a Leash: Stories of a Therapy Dog (Paperback)

By Judy Lester Brown

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Six Legs and a Leash is a delightfully told story of how God has used Judy Brown and Reggie, her giant schnoodle, to minister to others. No bones about it, ministry with a 120-pound dog isn't without its challenges. Their story is funny, moving, and inspiring as they take a message of hope and encouragement to patients in hospitals, residents of nursing homes, and children in the worship services of Judy's home church. I highly recommend this book. It shows how God can use those who are willing to leave their comfort zone and follow his call. Charles Kirkpatrick, founder and president, Sermons 4 Kids, Inc. Six Legs and a Leash tells the uplifting story of the making and mission of a canine/human partnership and the people whose lives Reggie and Judy touched. The therapeutic power of animals to bring a smile and brighten a day is only one of the lessons you will learn from this memoir and guide. Fred Graham, former chief anchor for Court TV, law correspondent for CBS News,...
