RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 32 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)52190716 Subject: Emergency management -- United States -- Finance. Excerpt: . . . mpson joined me about a month ago in New Hampshire to discuss economic development options in Berlin and Gorham. A couple of weeks ago I met with Mike Brown of FEMA to discuss my terrorism preparedness legislation and FEMA's role in terrorism response. Just last night I sat down with Chairman Meserve of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to discuss nuclear security issues, especially those dealing with Seabrook Station in New Hampshire. I want to thank you all for working closely with me on issues of great importance, both to New Hampshire and the Nation. You all play important roles in our national preparedness efforts. I look forward to hearing your thoughts on our current security situation and what needs to be done in order for the American people to have the utmost confidence in this Nation's ability to protect our vital infrastructure against further terrorist attacks. As you know, I have introduced a few bills to address both security and preparedness response needs. A terrorism preparedness bill that will: Establish the mechanism to create a coherent national strategy for terrorism preparedness and response. It will create a single Federal coordinating and planning office for consequence management. It will integrate both State and local responders in the planning and development of national terrorism preparedness policies. I have also just introduced a water infrastructure grant bill to provide resources in order for these facilities to take care of immediate security needs. The grants in this bill can be used for a variety of needs including: training programs for rural utilities, gates, security cameras, surveillance equipment and other needs as identified by the utility. While...
