A Very spectacular service will be the coronation of King Arthur. It shall occur not earlier than one week after his accession to the throne. Let him select as marks of special honor those who are to take special parts in his coronation, one Knight to bear the royal robe; another Pridwin, the shield; another Rone, the spear; another Excalibar, the sword; and Merlin, the crown. On the night of coronation, after No. 16 of the ritual for regular meeting, all these shall retire to the King and escort him to his throne. At the throne he shall be clothed in all the insignia of office, Merlin concluding the regular ceremony by placing the crown on his head, after which he shall take his seat. During the ceremony all Knights shall stand in the royal presence. When Pendragon seats himself on his throne, this song may be sung or repeated: Upon King Arthur s throne to-night The royal sword is flashing bright. The dew of youth is on us laid, The dew of heaven upon our blade. Chorus. Then lift the heart and raise the song On manly voices fresh and strong: To knightly manhood pledged are we In life, in love, in loyalty. About the ancient Table Round The perfect circle shall be found. The noble names of heroes bold We ll stainless bear as they of old. Chorus. Beneath the white cross banner now We ll hold the memory of...
