Whether the need is for traditional music or the best in new music, "The Collegeville Hymnal" answers with a well-rounded collection for the weekly worship of Catholics. Join parishes around the country in discovering "The Collegeville Hymnal." Meeting the diverse needs of your parish "The Collegeville Hymnal" strengthens congregational participation through the highest standards in music and liturgy. It serves as a comprehensive music resource that invites and encourages singing in the parish but does not neglect the choral and cantorial music recommended by the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy and the American Bishops. That purpose has been achieved for choir directors, cantors, and congregations like your own who desire a hymnal that fills all your music needs: traditional and contemporary hymns, sung Masses, weddings, funerals, Responsorial Psalms, and more. Choosing from this eclectic collection of music is made simple by "The Collegeville Hymnal's" comprehensive set of indices. The indices are concise and easy to use and can assist you in planning the whole liturgical year. Harmonizing with Catholic heritage - your parish's classic music favorites "The Collegeville Hymnal" is your source for the best of traditional music. It includes a wealth of established hymns - classic favorites your choir and assembly already enjoy singing. Particular attention has been given to the texts of these traditional hymns, and archaic and non-inclusive language has been eliminated except where texts of poetic importance are involved. all of the hymns...
