Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Religion Through the Ages: An Anthology In 1905, eight years after graduation, the editor of this volume gave the Alumni Address at the Divinity School of Yale University. Hermon F. Bell was a listener as a member of the Senior Class. The subject of this pronouncement was The Content of Revelation. Reflecting that period of transition, it took a broad sweep beyond earlier views of Biblical inspiration and the doctrine of the Incarnation. The Yale spirit was conducive to inquiry and freedom of thought and while the address elicited considerable discussion, its thesis was not vigorously challenged. During the following period there was restlessness at Yale and some other schools of theology. The ministry was losing ground in the colleges and some of the theological institutions became disturbed by it. The writer was a member of an Alumni Advisory Committee of the Yale faculty and a moderately successful effort was made, by visiting colleges, to bring students to the ministry and to Yale. Other seminaries pursued similar measures. Two currents were related to each other:...
