Midwest Book Review Debut short story collection by an already accomplished storyteller In these twelve stories, youll meet a remarkable cast of complex, quirky characters tangled up in the limits theyve put on their lives. Driven by love or loneliness, like the man in the title, theyve boxed themselves in. Frank Tavares tells their stories with humor and compassion. And while the themes may be familiar crumbling marriages, feuding neighbors, sparring business partners, and the endless searching for what might have been here they become fresh, unpredictable, and surprising. This exciting debut collection from a first-rate storyteller will haunt and fascinate you long after you finish reading. You may never look at a chance pick-up in a bar the same way again. This is a writer youll want to know . . . Jack B. Bedell Too often, life stuns us with nuances and a mix of emotions that need time and patience to digest.
