*****. even though the thought of cruising down the road at a devastating speed in something that was worth millions of dollars was enticing, I was, once again, pulled away by the thought of Rebecca, admiring her-a portrait before my eye on the balcony-her enchanting voice, her eyes, her lips, the way she seemed to simultaneously float above the scene and stay completely grounded as she waited outside, intermittently looking at me and to the side of the balcony to a spot I could not see, her crescent-like dimples curving on her cheeks. A Rusty Story .Rusty Clarke is in a new town where he knows next to nobody, and his new job as an entry level analyst at Blackwell Investments approaches. He sets out on a romantic bike ride, returning a book that he had borrowed from Rebecca Cortland. Hours later, all the enchanted feelings of that bike ride vanish as his bike--which bears significant sentimental value--gets stolen. While attempting to reclaim his missing gem, Rusty is thrown into the midst of Jade Roselette...
